What is ODNNY?

The Organization Development Network of New York is an active association of OD practitioners, HR professionals, students, academics and others interested in learning about and supporting change. Its members include consultants and practitioners internal to New York companies and non-profits.

ODNNY helps its members create sustainable, transformative change by offering programs, services, events and web-based forums where they can network and learn from experts and from each other.

We have more than 200 members and 1,300 subscribers to our weekly email newsletter, ODNNY News. Our monthly programs are attended by as many as 80 people.

Why be a Sponsor?

As an ODNNY sponsor your organization's name and message can be seen by our 1,300 subscribers each week via ODNNY News, as well as by visitors to our web site and our social media platforms and by attendees at our programs, which are held at least monthly from September to June.

Here's what you get for your sponsorship of ODNNY:
